

Ibizan Hound

Height - Dogs - 23 ½ to 27 ½” Bitches - 22 ½ to 26”

General Appearance - The Ibizan is lithe and racy, yet strong, with a deer-like elegance. He is a hound of moderation. Unique in his clean-cut lines, large prick ears and light pigment. He is slightly longer than tall with clean, fine bone and strong, yet flat muscling.

Head - Long, narrow in form of sharp cone truncated at base. Finely chiseled extremely dry fleshed. Eyes -Oblique, small, clear amber to caramel in color, with rims color of nose (fully or partially pigmented). Ears -Large, pointed, natural. Highly mobile ears can point forward, sideways or folded backwards. From the front, height of ear is approximately 2½ times width. Skull - Long, flat, prominent occiput, little defined stop, narrow brow. Muzzle and skull are equal in length, parallel planes. Muzzle - Elongated, fine, slender, slight Roman convex. Nose - Prominent, rosy flesh color with pigment either solid or butterfly. Bite - Scissor.

Body - Neck - Strong, long, slender, slight arch. Back - Level, straight; chest deep, long prominent breastbone. Well tucked up. Ribs - Slightly sprung, brisket is approximately 2½” above elbow. Loin - Very slightly arched and croup well sloped. Tail - Set low, mobile, carried sickle, ring or saber. Forequarters - Angulation moderate. Shoulder blades well laid back. At point of shoulder they join a rather upright upper arm. Elbow - Positioned in front of deepest part of chest. Legs - Long, strong, straight. Pasterns - Flexible, slightly sloping. Hare-foot. Hindquarters - Angulation is moderate with hind quarters set well under body.

Coat - Two types of coat, both untrimmed, either short or wirehaired, both hard in texture. Wirehaired from 1 to 3” with generous moustache.

Color - White or red.

Gait - Efficient, light and graceful single tracking.

Disqualification: Any color other than white or red and any pigment color which is not as described.

May 4, 2022