

Beagle

Examine on table

Two varieties

13" - for hounds not exceeding 13 inches

15" - for hounds over 13" but not exceeding 15 inches in height.

General Appearance - A miniature Foxhound (English), big for his inches, built to last in the chase.

Head -Skull - Broad and fairly long with a medium length of muzzle. Ears - Fairly long and broad, set moderately low and rounded at the tip with almost no erectile power. Eyes - Brown or hazel, large, set well apart with soft hound like expression. Neck - Medium length.

Body - Compact, moderately angulated and sturdily built with a short back, and broad slightly arched loin, well sprung ribs, and plenty of bone. Tail - Short for his size with brush, and set moderately high and carried gaily.

Coat - Close, hard, of medium length. Color - Any true hound color.

Note - Beagles entered in the 13" variety which measure over shall be excused as "ineligible for class."

DISQUALIFICATIONS:

- Any hound measuring more than 15 inches shall be disqualified.
- Merle and Brindle Color Patterns.
